

The Student Health & Wellness Center
and
The Theatre Department
at College of the Canyons
Presents

...a beacon of light:
Breaking the cycle of Domestic Violence

A routine moment in a family's life abruptly changes a mother's view of what is acceptable. Tameé Seidling offers the audience an inside view of domestic violence.

A Solo Performance

by Tameé Seidling

A panel of trained experts will be available for questions and further information on domestic abuse

Wednesday, May 20 — 2:30 p.m.

Alliso Hall 101

This is a free performance, and all are welcome!

Expert panel includes The Domestic Violence Center, of SCV, Strengths United, and The Student Health & Wellness Center

